Lanky Guides Students On 25th-Year Tour

The twenty-fifth year at McCaskey brought many changes. Acoustical ceilings and fluorescent lights were installed in some halls. After much delay chairs and tables in the cafeteria were refinished. Because of the increased enrollment, the school day was lengthened 21 minutes to contain seven periods; 19 new teachers were hired; and two assemblies were instituted. Indication of McCaskey's perpetuity is the leaves in silver—to designate a twenty-fifth anniversary—on the cover of this year's ECHO.

Experts on the changes that have occurred since 1938 are 21 veteran teachers who were associated with McCaskey when the school opened. These include Robert W. Broome, Harold S. Butz, Clarence M. Ebersole, Charles R. Eshleman, Paul W. Frey, Abram E. Herr, Jacob L. Hillegas, H. Leland Hoover, Henry A. Hoover, S. Ernest Kilgore, Louise E. Kuhlmann, Charles S. Mulhatten, Mrs. Mary B. Myers, James J. Neely, Albert W. Rex, Dorothy E. Schock, Clarence P. Shull, Maurice C. Stallsmith, Naomi B. Terry, Violet B. Weber, and John P. Weise.

When this yearbook is distributed in May 1963, memories of the school's dedication in May 1938 will be revived for those who attended the opening of Lancaster's million-dollar highschool.

Since Lanky McLanc, the cheerleaders' mascot, has made his home here for the last five years, the ECHO staff thinks he is well qualified to be the guide thru the 25th year at McCaskey.

McCaskey— Inside And Out

School library is reference source for seniors Anne Kendig and Sally Reisinger.

While Kathleen Sheppard, James Schlinkman, and William Seiple relax, Susan Sensenig and John Sheaffer converse.

A 1962 air view of McCaskey reveals the familiar H-shaped building as well as parking and safety-driving areas.

Faculty

The faculty's youngest member, Miss Helen M. Shervanick, begins her first year with tips from Clarence P. Shull and Albert W. Rex, both of whom have reached retirement age and twenty-five years at McCaskey.

Administrators Supervise McCaskey Family

Principal of McCaskey for eight years, John H. Rodman leads the faculty and student body in many undertakings. Both he and Edward C. Kraft, assistant principal, strive continually for new educational developments and improvements.

Members of the McCaskey family for twenty-five years, Mrs. Mary B. Myers, dean of girls, and S. Ernest Kilgore, dean of boys, advise college-bound seniors, administer standard tests, and operate the McCaskey Placement Bureau.

As assistant dean of boys, Robert V. King organizes clubs and counsels underclassmen. He also interviews school drop-outs and helps to administer the general school program.

During one of their many after-school conferences, McCaskey's deans confer on a recent testing program. Robert V. King, S. Ernest Kilgore, and Mrs. Mary B. Myers tally scores and percentile ratings.

Heads of the Social Studies, Science, and English Departments, Clarence M. Ebersole, Charles R. Eshleman, and

Robert W. Broome review departmental changes during their twenty-five years at McCaskey.

In Memoriam

MISS A. BLANCHE LANDIS, secretary in the McCaskey High School office, died February 7, 1963. Miss Landis began her service in 1929 at the Stevens Girls' High School. February 7, 1938, (exactly 25 years ago to the day of her death) she came to McCaskey at its opening.

Miss Landis was always a loyal, hardworking employee who rarely "told tales out of school," and whose courage during the last month of her illness was enviable. Her friendly presence, enthusiasm in participating in school activities, and willingness to give assistance will be missed by the McCaskey family.

We do not see;

It was not meant for you and me
To look beyond the near, dim West,
Dividing the present from the rest—
From the to-come.

Just one by one
The steps we take;
Just one by one the glories wake,
Or tempests beat. We go
Nearer and nearer to the setting sun, and know
But this, Whatever is, is best.

Seniors Find Recognition In Various Activities

Being chosen to participate in Project MORE is an honor for selected McCaskey students. This program—MORE family doctors—is a national plan to help family physicians play an active role in encouraging young people to pursue medical careers. Four “student preceptees” were chosen from a group of McCaskey students interested in medicine. As representatives of Lancaster County, the only area in which the project was tested this year, four McCaskey seniors each observed a family doctor during a typical full day’s work.

Upper Right: Judith Coleman, McCaskey’s Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow, chats with Charlene Schwar, appointed representative from the home-economics department to McCall’s Magazine. Lower Right: Paul Sheren, National English Council award winner, rests at his typewriter in creative contemplation. Below Left: Displaying professional poise and grace, Charlene Schwar, the only senior entry in the Halloween Queen contest, strikes an exquisite pose from her ballet dance selection. Below Right: Senior participants in Project MORE demonstrate medical techniques. Prospective doctor Robert Campbell prepares to examine Donald Berk’s throat, while James Kautz takes Frances Daehling’s pulse.

Scholars Earn Honor In School And In Nation

National Merit honorable-mention winners review the books which helped them succeed. Seated: Kathryn Scott, Paul Sheren, Karen Forwood. Standing: Joseph Torres, Robert Copenhafer, William Essick, Thomas Preston.

Senior class officers plan future activities. President John Grezlak, vice-president William Troop, and treasurer

Thomas Bostic are observed by Susan Kloss, historian, and Joanne Potts, secretary.

CLASS MOTTO: Knowledge Learned Is Wisdom Earned

COLORS: Silver and blue

FLOWER: Light blue carnation

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
As we sing our grateful song,
Proud are we for thee and prouder
That to Lancaster we belong.
School days filled with joy and laughter
Soon will be a memory.
May they teach us to be braver
As we face our destiny.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Help us now to prove our worth,
As we strive to do thee honor,
Garden spot of all the earth.
Through the years our foes discerning,
Red and black—our flag we'll fly
O'er the best in sport and learning.
Hail to thee, McCaskey High.

Student Life

While wolf whistles and shouts applaud their performance, senior football players act as counterparts to the cheerleaders in their "fun" assembly. Front Row: Larry

Clothing Styles Range From Stone Age To 1963

Left: "One, two, three, kick!" command Frederic Nissly, William Troop, and Richard Graeff, three high-steppers featured in the annual comedy pep assembly.

Carol Stewart's realistic wig. Demonstrating this year's clothing fads, Carol, Margaret, and Nadine Scheid model the popular short skirt, oversized pocketbook, and "teased" hair-do.

Eager to return to the game, football fans keep Donna Tavaglione, Joan Scheurich, Patricia Rupp, and Jeanne Davis on their toes as they sell typical "pigskin weather" food.

Food, Programs, And Youth Equal Football Fun

Below: "They're only ten cents," says junior Marilyn Wascou as she offers programs to a group of Tornado football enthusiasts.

Spring's clear skies and balmy weather encourage Barbara Brendle, Michael Hite, and Anne Kendig to study outdoors.

Spring And Fall Bring Satisfying Occasions

Left: Day of recognition arrives when new members are inducted into the National Honor Society. This year's president Thomas Preston receives congratulations from Principal John H. Rodman while Nancy Browne, 1962

Relax—School's Almost Over!

Autumn Preludes Football and Halloween

Peppy cheerleaders anxiously await the opening of the second half. Nancy Sampson, the three Judys—Judith Killian, Judy Reynolds, and Judith Ricker—and Jane Sponaugle cheer from the team benches.

Handicap in the cafeteria — absence of chairs during graduation exercises — is met by sitting on the tables. Dale Shenk, Susan Sensenig, Earle Schmucke, John Behmer, Gerald Shank, Nancy Bear, and Sandra Weicksel envy Sondra Scott, the only lucky one to find a chair. John and Sandra steal a few minutes from practice.

Chairlessness, Carelessness And Court Comeliness

Right: "It must be here!" exclaims Bruce Bolack as he and Richard Graeff help Ronald Albright search for a missing contact lens.

Below: Marjorie Lyall, Victoria Zentmyer, Barbara Hogarth, Mary Brubaker, Nancy Bear, Irene Kiphorn, and Joanne Potts, the members of the 1962 Girls' All-Star Tennis Team, played several county teams.

Underclassmen

Surrounded by fellow underclassmen, Ruth Hann scowls at her mishap—the most frequent hallway dilemma. Charles Kramer, Elaine Murry, Bonnie Harnish, Ernest Jamison, and Donald Wilson find the situation very amusing.

Yearbook Increases Editorial And Junior Staffs

This year the editorial staff was increased by the addition of a class editor whose job is to supervise the work of the senior editors. Also a larger number of juniors than usual was selected as staffers, including more boys.

In an effort to find ways for improving the 1963 ECHO, five members of the editorial staff and their adviser, Miss Violet B. Weber, traveled to the Pennsylvania School Press Association Convention in Bethlehem. After a busy afternoon of varied workshops, the day was climaxed by a banquet with Al Capp as guest speaker.

Because of an enthusiastic response to the subscription campaign, 1400 yearbooks—a record number—were sold. A frontispiece, a colored picture of the school, was inserted this year.

Anniversary Edition Highlights VIDETTE

When McCaskey was dedicated in 1938, the shape of the VIDETTE, then published monthly, was that of a small magazine. In September 1938 students produced the first VIDETTE newspaper, published bi-monthly. To the regular four-page paper were added two extra pages for the twenty-fifth year anniversary special printed in January. In addition to the usual coverage of school and community news and sports, this edition featured a review of many school departments and activities since 1938 as well as an account of the opening of the building.

VIDETTE staff members present McCaskey's portion of the weekly radio show "Scholastic Hi-Jinx" and publish programs for every home football game. In October four students traveled to the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association Convention in Bethlehem where the VIDETTE received the Keystone Award, the highest honor a student publication can attain in Pennsylvania.

Joint advisers of the VIDETTE this year are Robert W. Broome and John M. Silknetter.

Student Council Sponsors Quiz Assembly

Supervised by Edward C. Kraft, the Student Council, made up of one representative from each homeroom and one from various school organizations, performs duties to benefit the school. The Council's six committees—program, concession, cafeteria, welfare, safety, and handbook—sponsor the popular quiz assemblies and faculty teas, improve cafeteria conditions, set up Christmas decorations, operate the concession stand at home basketball games, revise the student handbook, and this year chose party chairmen for Youth Day in Government. In March the officers attended the Student Council Convention in Carlisle.

ProGREZ Sweeps All Offices In Youth Day Campaign

McCaskey students were given the opportunity to exercise their right to vote in a mock city election sponsored by the Lancaster Junior Chamber of Commerce for Youth Day in Government March 18. Two party managers, chosen by the Student Council, organized individual parties. Paul Sheren formed the victorious ProGREZ which supported John Grezlak for mayor, while Robert Campbell headed the COPE-eration with Robert Copenhafer as the mayoral candidate.

Following one week of active, bitter campaigning which featured two assemblies, where party platforms and slates were presented, as signs, posters, and tags flooded the building, students elected the ProGREZ party to office by a clean sweep. These students, John Grezlak, Caryn Sturgis, Hubert Barsumian, John Amour, Theresa Robinson, John Howett, Joanne Potts, David Wolf, and other appointed officials served with their counterparts at the Municipal Building.

Social Committee Plans Varied Entertainment

The All-School Social Committee, sponsored by senior deans S. Ernest Kilgore and Mrs. Mary B. Myers, includes representatives from all classes. This year the committee, reduced from 48 to 35 members, sponsored six dances. In November

"Fall Fantasy" was given; "Hollyday Hop" in December welcomed the returning alumni; and January saw "Blue Fantasia." February brought "Varsity Drag" and also "Hawaiian Holiday" at which the McCaskey Dance Band played.

McCaskey Sound—Cleveland Bound—Glory Found

As the highlight in its program, the McCaskey Band traveled on September 23 to the mammoth Cleveland Municipal Stadium in Ohio to appear in a twelve-minute drill viewed by millions of football fans across the nation. Under the direction of Donald L. Trostle, the Red-and-Black Band also represented Lancaster at the Governor's Inaugural Parade in Harrisburg on a blustery January day.

Lancaster's highest honor, the Red Rose Award, was presented by Mayor George B. Coe on January 31. Climaxing many months of serious study, the band appeared in its annual spring concert. Soloist and student director for the event was the first flutist, Joel Behrens, who played "Flute Fresco."

Joel Behrens, James Cluck, Claudia Foulke, John Gast, Susan Long, Charles McLaughlin, and James Spangler represented McCaskey at the Southern District Band Festival.

McCaskey Dance Band Becomes "Mellow Men"

The dance band this year assumed a more vigorous schedule than in the past. The "Mellow Men," as the group is called, practiced during club periods, before school, and Fridays after school. Charles McLaughlin directed the band at most of its outings, including school dances, a Valentine dance at Conestoga Valley, a ninth-grade class party, and assembly programs at McCaskey as well as at junior high schools. Music provided by the "Mellow Men" entertained those attending the instrumental music department party, "Roman Holiday," in March.

Orchestra Culminates Season With Concert And Spring Show

Following many early morning rehearsals, the orchestra entertained in two main events—the Christmas assembly and the annual spring concert. Under the direction of Donald L. Trostle and student-director Joel Behrens, the group also contributed to the production of "Brigadoon" and to the graduation ceremony. Chosen for the Southern District Orchestra Festival were Joel Behrens, Claudia Foulke, Carol Hersh, Barbara Lewis, Susan Newcomer, Rhona Siegel, and Viola Zell. Officers were Susan Newcomer, Claudia Foulke, Carol Hersh, and Jack Campbell.

Songsters Please McCaskey Family And Public With Musical Productions

Under the direction of Miss Dorothy E. Schock, the McCaskey Glee Club presented its annual Christmas concert on Sunday, December 23, 1962. This program, consisting entirely of sacred music appropriate to the Christmas season, was brought to a climax by the traditional singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."

"Brigadoon," the sixth annual musical production, was staged in May. Paul Sheren, Christine Shaar, David Gress, and Carol Hillard sang the leads. Choreography for the dances was done by Deborah Mumaw and Jane Tholen. Under the direction of Foster Augustine, H. Leland Hoover, and J. Irvin Shelly, the stagecrafters and vocational boys designed and built the sets and handled the lighting.

Accompanists for the senior glee club are Lois Quickel and Charles Weitkamp; Sherry Gordon and Carol Hersh play for the girls' chorus. McCaskey Choristers, a select group chosen from the senior glee club, entertain church groups, civic clubs, and other community organizations throughout the year.

Student Aides Perform Service For School

Under the direction of Miss Dorothea Wolfe, head librarian, and Mrs. Izora Bowermaster, assistant librarian, student library aides perform routine duties necessary for the smooth operation of the school library. Pasting pockets and date-due slips, preparing pamphlets and pictures for the vertical files, shelving books, making displays, and charging various materials are only a few of their many jobs.

Book marks are distributed periodically for the use of students. In January—to help start the New Year off right—book marks with the coming year's calendar are given to all students.

Tornado Regains "Bucket" After York Game

McCaskey's grid squad opened the 1962 season with hopes of bettering the record of last year's team. This year the team garnered a 6-4 tally and placed third in Central Penn competition. However, this disappointment was offset by the return of the traditional "bucket" to McCaskey after an exciting 7-0 victory in the York game.

The season began slowly as the Tornado dropped the first game to Coatesville. The team smashed league-play opener Cedar Cliff. The gridders met their first league defeat at the hands of William Penn. The next week-end they bounced back onto the winning track as they downed Lebanon.

In its fourth league encounter, McCaskey played its most exciting game of the season with Reading, defeating the Black Knights in a sensational second-half come-back. Then they were downed by Steelton and John Harris. The grid-ders closed the season with a victory over Williamsport. Clyde Lucas, Larry Pew, and Jock West were elected to the Central Penn All-Star Team.

Halfback Tom Bostic, having caught a pass, sprints for extra yardage as team-mates Gary Keller, Harry Garman,

Weather Cannot Dampen Cheerleaders' Spirit

This year the duties of the fifteen varsity cheerleaders, under the supervision of Harold S. Butz, were increased by the addition of another assembly—a result of the school's growing enrolment. In spite of the weather the girls remained cheerful and peppy: during the John Harris game their enthusiasm triumphed over the biting cold, freezing rain, and snow that bleak November day.

The cheerleaders' activities were highlighted by two banquets where they received roses, corsages, and trophies. During club period the varsity cheerleaders teach junior and sophomore members school cheers to prepare them for try-outs in the spring of their junior year.

Coached by Daniel W. McGary and Gordon A. Kraft, the junior varsity football team showed an improvement over last year, finishing the season with two victories, three ties, and two defeats.

The won-lost record did not reveal the actual playing ability of the gridgers. Although they ended the season with the same number of wins as losses, the team outscored their opponents 52-41.

Red-And-Black Booters Conclude Creditable Season

James J. Neely directed the Tornado soccer team thru a three-win, two-loss, four-tie record for the season. McCaskey booters scored sixteen goals while their opponents scored seventeen. Ted Robinson was high scorer with five goals; Darold Gerlach tallied three points; and Dave Newton, Tom Feigley, and Paul Weaver each scored twice. Bob Snyder, captain for the season, became the first recipient of the Raymond Link Trophy, presented by the coach to the outstanding player of the 1962 season. Snyder, Robinson, and Gerlach represented McCaskey on the Lancaster County All-Star Soccer Team.

The junior varsity, coached by G. Richard Bechtel, exhibited an impressive 4-2-2 record.

Unbeaten and untied in regular competition, the Red-and-Black cross-country team successfully defended their District Three PIAA title and went on to finish third at the State meet. Coached by H. Grant Hurst, the hill-and-dalers completed their sixth successive winning season and extended their consecutive victories to 38.

Paced by Captain Art Morris, the team was also led by Terry Hollinger and Mike Humphreville, who were always a close second and third. Art broke Columbia's course record and lowered the mark at McCaskey two different times. In the State championships, Art finished second, Mike 22nd, and Terry 35th in a field of 178 runners.

Varsity Dribblers Experience Rough Season

Charles R. Miller coached McCaskey's cagers thru a season of 9 wins and 13 losses. Senior co-captains Theodore Robinson and Harry Garman led the team with point totals of 211 and 188 and game averages of 9.6 and 8.5 respectively.

McCaskey's league record of 5 wins-13 losses was due largely to one of the best years in team strength of the majority of Central Penn teams. This disastrous occurrence was clearly shown in McCaskey's winning all four of its non-league encounters.

Four seniors will be lost because of graduation, but next year's team will boast six returning lettermen.

Earl Sites attempts a side-court shot as Harry Garman, Jim Todd, and Mike Parker go in for a possible rebound.

Jayvee Basketball Team Compiles 10-12 Record

The Red-and-Black Jayvee Dribblers, coached by P. Robert Herr, were unable to turn in a winning record for the 1962-63 season. The overall record was 10-12 with 7 wins and 11 losses in league competition.

The McCaskey players accumulated a total of 1052 points or an average of 47.2 per game to the opponents' 47.1. High scorer Rick Gable tallied a total of 264 points or 12 per game. Coming in second with 160 points was Linn Rice.

During the season Rick scored a high of 26 against York, and John Palmer pulled down 20 rebounds against York. Highlight of the season was the 64-52 victory over York.

Matmen Place Third in League Competition

Fighting their way to a record of ten wins and two losses, the Tornado grapplers compiled a 9-2 tally in league play. Showing improvement over the last three years, the matmen, under the direction of Coach William C. Piper, placed third in league competition.

Varsity wrestlers Gary Williams, Bill Troop, Bob Copenhafer, and Darold Gerlach grappled their way to the semi-finals of the Lancaster County Section Two Wrestling Tournament. Bill and Darold, pressing their bid for their respective District 3 championships, fell from competition by decisions.

The jayvees turned in a promising record of nine victories and five losses.

Few weaknesses are to be found in the McCaskey line-up. Among the eight returning lettermen is Jock West—the only District 3 champ. Central Dauphin was the first to bow in Central Penn competition, as McCaskey trounced them 107½ to 19½. The Red-and-Black was victorious in 14 of the 15 events. West set one school record and two league records in the shot and javelin. Morris ran an outstanding mile, dropping 5.9 seconds from his best time last year.

The Tornado will participate in other meets with Steelton-Highspire, York, Lebanon, John Harris, Reading, William Penn, and Cedar Cliff.

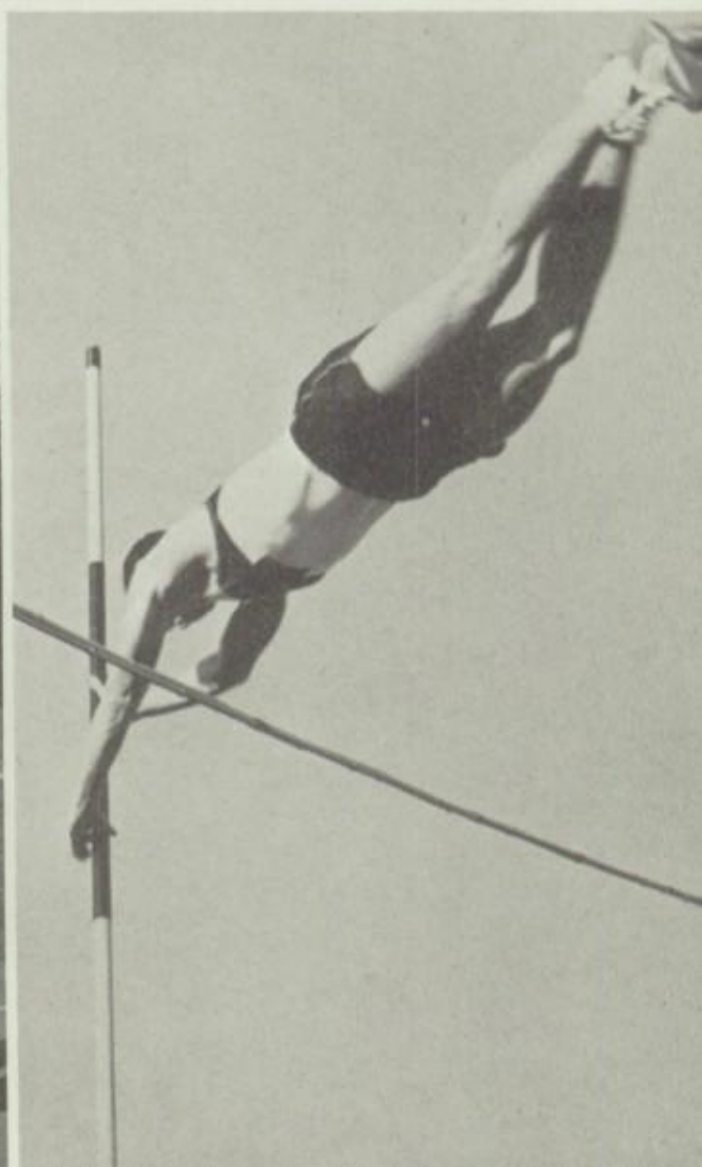

Upper Left: Distance runner Art Morris—mile, half-mile, and mile relay specialist—paces himself in an effort to cut his time. Upper Right: High-hurdles ace Ted Robinson easily clears the first obstacle in the 120-yard event. Lower Right: Barry LeVan, Tornado high-jumper, sails over the standard with ease.

Under Coach P. Robert Herr, the varsity plays fourteen league games with Hershey, Steelton-Highspire, John Harris, Lebanon, William Penn, York, and Milton Hershey.

The varsity squad, altho unsuccessful in its non-league encounters, won the league opener by defeating Hershey 12-8. In the next contest the Tornado nipped Steel-High 4-3. Then John Harris defeated McCaskey 4-2.

Tornado Netmen Seek Central Penn Victories

Top prospects include Robert Campbell and David Coursin, entrants in the District 3 P.I.A.A. indoor tennis tournament. The starting team consists of Campbell, Coursin, Jody Holzbauer, Robert Krantz, and Jay Burch. Alan Lauer will alternate positions with Burch.

In the opener, a non-league match with Wilson, Jody Holzbauer was the only victor for McCaskey as the Tornado dropped the meet 6-1. League competition includes Hanover, Cedar Cliff, William Penn, Central Dauphin East, John Harris, York, Hershey, Susquehanna, and Central Dauphin.

The junior varsity, coached by H. Grant Hurst, may encounter a difficult season in playing in the Lancaster-County League. However, these matches will provide the team with excellent experience.

Our Strength and Our Hope FOR THE FUTURE...

Today's graduates—they're our great strength and our great hope for the future.

They are the ones who will help make our world better in the years ahead. They'll do it with youthful energy and enthusiasm and with the aid of the information they're getting in their classrooms.

We're all proud of our young people now. We'll be even more proud when they're our leaders tomorrow!

And, you can be sure, we reserve a special vote of thanks for the teachers who are helping show them the way.
